BREAK IN PIPE DELAYS FIREMEN

Fire Alarm on Friday Evening Brings out Company. Suction Pipe on Engine-Breaks, Causing Delay in Getting Water.

The bursting of the suction pipe on the fire engine Friday evening delayed the work of the department for several minutes when called out to extinguish a blaze at the stables at the rear of the Hotel Wabash but under the direction of Chief Wisotzkey other connections were made and only a few minutes lost with the result that the fire was conquered before any considerable damage was done.

The blaze originated at the chicken
house on the property of Charles A.
Blocher, hot coals in a pile of ashes which had been thrown out starting the fire. The small structure was burned to the ground and the Hotel Wabash stable caught, together with the stable on Mr. Blocher's property tenanted by James Weaver.

As soon as the fire was discovered an alarm was turned in and until the company arrived men got from the buildings everything of value. The Wabash bus horse was got out of the stable by Arthur Douglass and others saved the other contents.

The fire company was prompt as usual in answering the alarm and quickly made an attachment with the engine suction pipe at the Sanders corner. The hose lines were laid and the men at the nozzles were waiting for the water. As soon as it was turned on, however, the suction pipe broke and in order to save time Chief Wisotzkey ordered one line taken up and removed to the plug in front of the federal building site. This was done and soon two streams were playing on the fire. The only damage was to the exterior of the stables.

Mr. Wisotzkey in speaking of the bursting of the suction pipe said this morning that while other pipes were on hand their length makes it necessary to bend them to place on the engine and as a result they break easily when straightened as at Friday evening's fire. He suggests shorter suction pipe which would not need to be bent and an attachment to the engine which would permit the shorter pipe to be connected. The delay caused at Friday evening's fire, the Chief points out, would have been costly on a windy night.

SCOUTS TO GIVE DEMONSTRATION

Gettysburg Boy Scout will Show
how to Revive Drowning Man and Many Other Things. Want to Meet President Taft.

Gettysburg Company Boy Scouts of America are preparing to give a public exhibition of the work they have been doing and the people of town will be shown how to rescue a drowning man, how to carry out from a burning house an unconscious victim, how to bandage various wounds and other things of value which the Scouts have been learning for some weeks.

Coupled with this practical exhibition the boys will give a play, the first scene of which will likely represent a woods, the forest and open air life being one of the first principles of the Boy Scout idea.

Four troops of Scouts have been formed here and a fifth is now being organized. Each troop has its own name and the call of the animal under which name they travel is used when they are in the woods and want to find each other. The troops are the Panther, Bull Dog, Kangaroo and Bear with the following patrol leaders respectively, Jacob Kudisill, John Stahle, Robert Witherow, Howard
Armour. Scout Master Logan heads the company to which all four troops belong.

Two-thirds of the boys who belong
are now in full uniform, the khaki clad members being frequent sights about town. A system of merits and demerits has been established and for promptness, kindness and other good qualities points are added to the score of the troop. Similarly points are deducted for objectionable traits and anything exceptionally unworthy a Scout results in either suspension or expulsion. Just now the Kangaroo patrol stands first under this system of rating.

The Gettysburg Boy Scouts are looking forward to their proposed hike to Washington in June. They will go at a time when President Taft is in the city, for arrangements can be made by which the local Scouts will meet the Executive. Just now a drum corps is in process of organization and will prove one of the features of the trip.

Today the Scouts took a hike to McKnightstown and return, carrying with them their rations in haversacks.

ALMOST LOST TRACTION ENGINE

While Lightner Brothers, Virginia
Mills, were on their way home from Waynesboro with a Geiser traction engine, they nearly lost the big piece of machinery at the bridge at the creamery at the west end of Rouzer-ville, about 2 o'clock Friday afternoon.

The left front wheel of the engine struck the stone wall of the bridge and knocked six or eight feet of it into the creek. The front wheel slipped over the edge of the road and the ma-chadum crumbled away, falling into the creek, until the front axle of the engine was flat on the ground.

The rear wheels remained on the solid macadam and kept the heavy machine from tumbling into the creek.
The Messrs. Lightner and a number of Rouzerville men constructed a block and tackle of rope and the trolley track and tried to pull the front part of the engine back on the solid roadway.

This did not prove successful and
The Geiser Company was telephoned to send a larger engine out to help in the work. The machine was not damaged but the pike and bridge wall continued to crumble away and the damage to that may be extensive. The engine was finally pulled from its dangerous position by the trolley company.

BUSINESS HEAVY FOR APRIL FIRST

Gettysburg Court House and Banks Scenes of Much Activity for Annual Settlement Day. Large Numbers of County People here.

The usual April first volume of business was transacted in Gettysburg
today, the banks and Court House offices being crowded practically all day from the time of their opening.

All the trains brought in large numbers of people from the county whole many others drove in so that with the usual volume of Saturday
trade the town was busy.

Judging from the amount of business transacted at the offices of the prothonotary and the register and recorder up until three o'clock this afternoon the volume will reach the usual amount for the day.

Attorneys and others interested were exceptionally busy and the day
throughout was a typical April first.
Snow flurries interrupted by bright sunshine kept the crowds guessing as to dress and methods of travel in coming to town and the weather man seemed to be having about as much fun in the "April fool" business as anyone.

RECORD YOUR DEEDS

By an Act of Assembly of 1893, "All Deeds and Conveyances shall be recorded within ninety days after their execution, or shall be adjudged fraudulent and void against subsequent purchasers."

Also the Act of Assembly of 1909, prescribes a short form of Deeds, and "again requires the recording to make them valid."

It is also a great protection against loss or deed being burned by having them recorded, and costs but a small sum, compared to getting a new deed.

Bring or send them into the Recorder's office, and in a few days they will be returned to you.

THREATENED TO KILL CHILD

Two Masked Men Take Child From the Mother at Point of Revolvers.
Posses on Trail and Lynching May Follow.

Las Vegas, N. M., April 1.—Torn from its mother's arms by two masked men at pistol's point at the dead of night, held by the abductors twenty-four hours and then safely returned on the payment of $12,000 cash, tells in brief the story of a sensational kidnapping in this city of Waldo Rogers, the two-year-old son of A. T. Rogers, Jr., a prominent and wealthy attorney.

Though the child was stolen night before last and the threats of the abductors that they would kill the babe if any report was made to the authorities, the news of the abduction didn't become known until an hour after the child had been surrendered and the kidnappers had escaped with their ransom.

Frantic Mother Tried to Bribe Fiends.
At the time of the kidnapping the child's father was absent from the city. The two masked men forced their way into the home of the fashionable residence and demanded the babe. The frantic mother tried to bribe them with jewels, silverware and what money was in the house, but the demand for $12,000 or for the child resulted in the little fellow being taken. The bandits left a note telling how the money was to be paid.

The note directed that a red lamp should be hung on the rear window of the house at 11 o'clock at night if the money was to be turned over. Failure to do so was to be taken as a refusal and would result in the immediate murder of the child, according to the threats in the note, which directed that the money be in bills of $10 or less.

The terror stricken family let no one into the secret, got the money and at the appointed hour, William Rogers, an uncle of the kidnapped child, drove to the lonely mountain spot with the cash.

Money Paid; Child Returned.

Three bandits emerged from their hiding places with leveled Winchester and took the money, which they carefully counted in the glare of the automobile's lamps, and finding the full amount in the packages of $6000 each, directed the uncle to a point eight miles in the opposite direction, where, beside the road, wrapped in a blanket, the child was found asleep and none the worse for his experience.

The babe was returned to its parents in Las Vegas as fast as the automobile could burn up the miles. Then the officers were notified. Immediately posses were organized and northeastern New Mexico is being scoured by bodies of armed men.

The bandits have been trailed to the Bad Lands near the Oklahoma line, and with the posses but eight hours behind them and bloodhounds following the trail, their capture seems certain. It is believed the kidnappers, who are four in number, will be lynched if taken alive.

The stolen child is a grandson of Judge Henry L. Waldo, the Kansas City millionaire, who is on his way to Las Vegas on a special train. He has offered $10,000 reward for the capture of the bandits, while Las Vegas and citizens have increased the reward by $3000.

Washington, April 1.—Representative Joseph G. Cannon, of Illinois, made formal announcement that he would not be a candidate for minority leader in the next congress.

KILLS SISTER IN MISTAKE

Youth Takes Her For Burglar in Their Home.

Philadelphia, April 1.—Aroused by an unusual noise in his home at Lansdowne, near here, and seeing a figure moving about in the dim light, Alexander Kerr, eighteen years old, fired at the object.

Too late he discovered that he had mortally wounded his sister, Nellie, sixteen years old. The girl died in a short time.

The father is a night watchman and was away from home. Young Kerr heard a noise and, after investigation, without result, returned to bed.

A few minutes later he was again aroused, this time by his mother, who also had heard the noise. Taking a gun loaded with birdshot, he went into the hallway and saw a figure in dark clothing.

Knowing that his father was not at home, he fired. The shot extinguished a lamp that was burning dimly, and when it was relighted Kerr and his mother were horrified to discover the fatal mistake.

The girl had evidently risen to go to the bathroom and had slipped on a dark robe over her night dress.

WOMAN KILLED, HOME WRECKED BY EXPLOSION

Dynamite Stored Cellar Suddenly Lets Go.

Dover, N. J., April 1.—As the result of a dynamite explosion which totally destroyed her home at Allen Mine, about two miles north of Dover, Mrs. Joseph Lottick is dead, her five-year-old son is not expected to live and the whole neighborhood was badly shaken up.

The exact cause of the accident is not positively known, but it is thought that several sticks of dynamite were stored in the cellar, to be used for blasting purposes and the heat from the kitchen stove caused the stuff to explode.

Mrs. Lottick and her two children were sleeping together in a bed on the first floor when the explosion occurred. The end and rear of the house were blown out and the bed and its three occupants were hurled some distance into the yard.

One of the children escaped injury, but the other had a leg broken and was injured internally, while Mrs. Lottick was so badly mangled that she died a few hours later.

Another woman sleeping in an up per room escaped injury, although the building collapsed on after the explosion.

MOST FEARED MAN IN ITALY ON STAND

Camorrist Leader Lashes Authorities.

PROTESTS HE IS INNOCENT

Swears He is a Victim of Yellow
Journalism and Suffered Persecution
For Four Years.

Viterbo, Italy, April 1.—Lovers of the dramatic had their fill at the session of the murder trial of the thirty-six Camorrist.

Enrico Alfano, the "most feared man in Italy," reputed to be the actual head of the criminal organization, was under interrogation and held the crowd in the courtroom spellbound with his eloquent denials.

The man is innocent or a consummate actor. The slender figure seemed to grow until it dominated the occasion, and friends and enemies alike shrank from the gaze he fixed upon one and then another while he poured forth the most scathing arraignment of the authorities ever heard in an Italian court.

As the questioning proceeded and the thrusts of the president and the crown prosecutor went home, Enrico trembled with excitement. His face hardened with anger until he looked like a savage animal about to spring upon its prey. Suddenly he abandoned all attempts at composure and gave free reign to his feelings.

"It is a lie, a myth!" he shouted. "I was neither the head nor the tail of the Camorra. I was a boy among boys of the poorer class. I was no better and no worse than my mates."

"I was ruined first by the sensationalism of that newspaper, the Mattino. That is why, although I now regret the deed, all my nerves rebelled, as a member of the staff of that paper approached me when I was arraigned in court as a murderer, I could not help spitting in his face."

"Then the carabinieri damned me by making me appear as an assassin. To call us assassins is inhuman cruelty. No one has a right to so stigmatize us—not even a confessed criminal who, to serve his own ends, becomes an assassin—only after he has been condemned."

President Bianchi requested Enrico to calm himself, but the only effect of this interruption was to cause the prisoner to burst into tears. Sobbing violently, he continued:

"For four years I have suffered persecution and martyrdom. Constantly before my eyes is a picture of my dear, innocent brother, dying in a prison cell adjoining my own. In my ears ring his laments as he passed through the agony of death. He was young and the beautiful image of his creator. He died innocent."

Enrico paused, and the only sound came from the prisoners' cage, where Gennaro Ibelli, alleged head of the Camorra in the Vesuvius villages, leaning his head against the steel bars, cried like a child.

Enrico began his business career as an errand boy in a flower shop. Early in life he had a place of his own. Then he established a grain market and speculated in cattle, bargaining with the farmers who visited the fairs. He grew wealthy and became a usurer, with an office in the center of the city.

It was left to Lieutenant Petrosino, the American detective, to arrest and bring to justice this man, who had defied the police of Italy.

Following the murder of Gennaro Cuocolo, he was arrested and charged with instigating the crime, but a way to his release was found in the false testimony of the priest, Ciro Vittozzi, "the guardian angel of the Camorra."

Pierre Vedrine Makes Great Speed in Monoplane.

Issy-les-Moulineaux, France, April 1.—Pierre Vedrine left Paris in a monoplane and arrived here, having maintained an average speed of slightly more than 101 miles an hour.

Vedrine did 235 kilometers (approximately 223 miles) in 132 minutes. One of the fastest railroad expresses in France covers the same general route in 236 minutes.

"I was favored with a light breeze," said the aviator, "but my machine does 130 kilometers (approximately eighty-seven miles) an hour in a calm."

WISCONSIN FOR WOMAN SUFFRAGE

Will Vote For All Offices Except President.

Madison, Wis., April 1.—Women suffrage in Wisconsin is assured for all offices except president.

The senate without debate passed the measure giving women the ballot, the only condition being a referendum, which submits the proposition to the voters of the state for final decision. This will prevent the women voting for governor at the next state election in 1912, for the referendum will be held then.

Following the passing of the bill, Senator James, the sponsor for the measure, whose daughter managed the campaign for the suffragists, passed around cigars, the gift of his daughter, who also arranged to give every senator who doesn't smoke a pound box of candy.

O'GORMAN IS ELECTED SENATOR.

Long Deadlock in New York Legislature Broken.

IS A TAMMANY MAN

Compromise Candidate Backed by Charles Murphy and Accepted by Insurgents Elected.

Albany, N. Y., April 1.—Supreme Court Justice James A. O'Gorman, of New York, a Democrat, and prominent member of Tammany Hall, was elected United States senator by the legislature on the sixty-fourth joint ballot after a deadlock lasting since Jan. 6.

Justice O'Gorman received 112 votes out of 192 cast. Chauncey Depew, his Republican opponent, received 80 votes. Necessary for choice, 97.

Justice O'Gorman was announced as the organization candidate upon the unexpected arrival from New York of Charles F. Murphy, leader of Tammany Hall.

The insurgents resented the sudden injection of a candidate whose name had not appeared on any of the "eligible" lists they had submitted to the regulars, but not so strongly as to cause a withdrawal of O'Gorman's candidacy.

Insurgents Accept O'Gorman.

The Democratic caucus, however, was postponed until late in the afternoon, in order to allow the insurgents to reach a decision on this latest phase in the long contest, and when the insurgent caucus was held the vote stood 15 to 5 in favor of supporting Justice O'Gorman. This plainly foreshadowed his election, and when the insurgents appeared at the regular caucus they were received with cheering.

There were Democrats who declared that the insurgents were promised immunity for past irregularity; that they should be renominated in their districts when their terms expired, and that all legislation in which they were personally and politically interested would be adopted, provided they would come in and help elect a Democratic United States senator.

After much discussion a vote was taken on the question of endorsing Justice O'Gorman, and there were but nine votes in favor to eleven against such endorsement.

It was at this point that the insurgents insisted that they be given assurances that they wouldn't be persecuted or punished for their insubordination. Later, when these assurances were given, a second vote showed that fifteen of the insurgents favored Justice O'Gorman, while only five were opposed to him. These five then agreed to make the endorsement of Justice O'Gorman by the insurgents unanimous.

RAILROAD "SCHOOL" PINCHED

Officers Arrested For Using Mails to Defraud.

New York, April 1.—A school where, during the past two or three years, one might learn to be a brakeman or railway fireman, and which, according to the postal authorities, has had about 2000 pupils a year and has been doing a yearly business of from $30,000 to $40,000, temporarily stopped business when George H. Baker, a well-dressed man, fifty-two years old, president and general manager of the Educational Association of Brooklyn, was arrested on a charge of "obtaining money by false pretenses through fraudulent use of the mails."

Paul J. Gallagher, said to be secretary of the school for the training of workmen, and John A. Jenkins, listed as a member of the board of directors of the institution, also were arrested. The complainants claimed that they had paid either $15 to learn to be a brakeman or $200 to become a fireman on the written agreement that the school "literature" guaranteed that upon completion of either course a student would get a job on a railway within thirty days or the tuition money would be refunded.

Played Trick to Escape Paying His Bills.

Seaford, Del., April 1.—Local authorities and officials of Chicago are making a search for Lemuel Tull, a young man formerly of near Galetstown, Md., who, it is alleged, played a trick to escape the payment of some bills to manufacturers in Chicago.

On March 12 relatives in Seaford received a message, supposedly from the Chicago coroner, saying that Tull had died and asking what disposition to make of his body. A reply was sent, but nothing more has been heard from the dead man and investigations have proved that no person named Tull had died in Chicago within the last two months.

As young Tull was known to have been heavily in debt it is supposed that he feigned death in order to fool his creditors.

SCALDED IN BOILING SAP

Four-Year-Old Boy Falls Into Vat and Is Fatally Burned.

Utica, N. Y., April 1.—The four-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Crandall, who lives near the village of Sherburne, is dead as the result of falling into a vat of boiling sap at his father's sugar bush.

Owing to the smoke and steam the boy's presence near the vat was not noticed. Crandall, replenishing the fire, heard a suddenly smothered scream. Peering into the vat, he saw the baby struggling in the boiling liquid and pulled him out. The boy was then unconscious, and a doctor who was summoned was able to give little relief. The child's death occurred within a few hours.

What About Your Easter Suit?

Easter comes late enough in April to permit us to enjoy Spring weather--then why not attend to the matter of the purchase of a Spring Suit NOW. We are showing the most complete line we will be able to show this season, as every day lessens the assortment.

Every one of which would be priced $25.00 and $27.00 in any city store. Elegant grade of Serges in Navy and Black, Fancy Tweeds, or the very attractive Hair Lines. Jaunty Jackets, elegantly lined, with gorge plaited skirts mostly. Some are especially smart with a bit of fancy braid or color while others show their class by their plain but splendid tailoring at pocket, collar and cuff.

Beautiful Cream Serge Suits at $16.50 to $22.50

We have not overlooked the needs of the Junior Miss in her Tailored Suit. Hair Line Jaunty Suits, all wool, nicely tailored and lined at $9.50, suits you'd expect to pay $12 for.

TUB DRESSES

We are glad to announce the arrival last week of over 100 White Lingerie, Fancy Lawn and Gingham Dresses. Never have we shown such a great variety of such beautiful styles as this season. Styles that are designed in cut and trimming by experts "who live and move" with dress style in their thoughts--who visit the Fashion Centres of the world and work out adaptations for the diversified tastes of the United States. In looking over our stock you see just how they look ready to put on, which most people cannot see in their mind's eye when materials are bought by the yard. Then too--there is the fit--and the price--Look at the dresses, calculate the quantity and price of the materials, trimmings--and the cost of dress-making--plus the style--that few dress makers can give you, and you will see how much is gained.

Dresses at $2.00, $3.00, $4.00, $5.00 to $10.00.

White Lingeries, at $2, $3, to $8.50.

Handsome White French Lawns, richly trimmed, at $9 to $22.50.

NOTE--These garments are under the well known Acorn Brand. A personal inspection of this factory found it as clean as your own dining room with operators intelligent and refined in appearance and dress.

For The Girl Graduate

It isn't too soon -- especially if you must have the services of a dress-maker, to look after the purchases of the dress and accessories for this very great occasion. Every right kind of materials are now on our counters. French Batistes, French Lawns, English Sheer Nainsooks, Persian Lawns, Flaxons, Fancy and Plain Marquissette Weaves -- and many others. In addition to the advantage of having so great a choice of fabrics--there is every right kind of lace and trimmings that the fashion dictates -- or your own taste suggests.

Every piece of White Goods named, as well as Trimmings was bought direct from the Importer -- that means a saving in price to you.

Also all the little necessities -- such as gloves. White Hose, Fans & etc -- are to be had at less than the usual of most stores.

Black & Colored Serges

Elegant qualities are shown by us in both fine and course diagonal twills. There is no dress fabric more serviceable, or that lends itself to the tailors art with more grace. For practical separate skirts, and the very stylish one piece dress it is equally adaptable. We are showing not only the reigning favorites of black and Navy but also the best Spring time shades.

We here repeat, what we said in a recent advertisement, that our Silk fabric stock exceeds in assortment that of all the Adams County stores combined. In addition to the great variety of patterns and colors of Foulards, at the variety of prices of from 50 cts., to $1, are the Fancy Striped and Checked Messalines in the beautiful new Spring colors of Alice, Helen, Coral, Reseda and every staple shade, 24 and 26 inch width, 75 cts. and $1. ### MARK TWAIN ONCE SAID

"It is Spring Fever that causes the general unrest, lack of ambition and run-down condition which pervades the human system in the Spring of the year."

The sudden change from frigid to torrid weather occurs within a few weeks, especially in our northern states.

No wonder pulmonary troubles--pneumonia, spring fever, and all such ailments are almost universal.

If people in this vicinity only knew the value of Vinol, our delicious cod liver and iron tonic (without oil) at this season of the year, we would not be able to get enough to supply the demand.

Vinol tones up the digestive organs, purifies and enriches the blood, promotes healthful sleep and a normal appetite.

Old people, delicate children, run down, overworked and tired women, those suffering from bronchitis, chronic coughs and colds, all derive great benefit from its use.

Try a bottle of Vinol with the understanding that your money will be returned if it does not help you. People's Drug Store, C. Wm. Beales, proprietor, Gettysburg, Pa.

INVENTOR'S FALL

Badly Hurt While Trying Out Aerial Life Preserver.

Baltimore, April 1. -- Clarence R. Rudasill, inventor of a parachute designed as a sort of aerial life preserver, nearly met his death while trying out his invention at Elevator B, Locust Point.

Instead of landing in the water, as he had expected, Rudasill fell with an awful thud on the edge of the pier and was picked up unconscious. He was rushed to the Mercy hospital. On the way he declared that he would try out his invention again at the first opportunity.

For weeks Rudasill has been awaiting an opportunity to try his parachute. He wanted to jump from the Washington Monument in Washington, but the police stopped him.
